Naples, May 26.

THE Squadron of Gallies of this Kingdom, which has been to exchange the Garrisons of the Places the King is possess'd of on the Coast of Tuscany, return'd yesterday into this Port; and waits for Orders from the Court of Madrid to sail agen, and joyn the Fleet of the 2 Crowns that is design'd to act against the Enemy's Fleet. New Orders are sent to the Provinces to furnish without Delay, the Men that are drawn out of the Militia Troops, to fill up the 8 new Regiments that are forming, and which are design'd to be sent some to Spain, and some to Lombardy. The Duke of Mirandola continues in this City; he has receiv'd the Compliments of the Nobility on the taking of Mirandola by the Forces of the 2 Crowns; on Account of which he will give a magnificent Feast, and a Firework. The Pedestal on which the Statue of the King on Horseback, of Brass, is to be plac'd in the Square of Jesus, is finish'd; and 'tis discours'd, that at the setting up of that Statue, the Ministers and the Nobility will make a noble Cavalcade about it.

Rome, May 23. To make Room for the Bishop of Posnania, the Neapolitan Officers who had been detain'd Prisoners 2 Years in the Castle of St. Angelo, for having levied Soldiers for the Emperor in the Ecclesiastical State, have been remov'd to the ordinary Prisons of this City. A Column of Lapis Lazuli of great Value, was found t'other Day in digging up a Vineyard near the Campo Vacino. They write from Naples, that the Duke d'Escalona Viceroy of that Kingdom, and the Countess of San Estevan de Gormaz his Daughter-in-Law, were gone to Salerno, to offer up their Devotions before the miraculous Crucifix, which bow'd the Head at the fervent Prayers of Pietro Baiardo, who from a great Sinner becoming a great Penitent, kept kneeling before that Crucifix, till by that miraculous Token he was satisfied God had pardon'd his Sins.

Remarks upon Mr. Clark's Sermons Preach'd at St. Paul's against Hobbs, Spinoza, and other Atheists, wherein 'tis demonstrat'd: 1. That Mr. C. by the Sceptical Hypothesis he employs, absolutely cuts off all possible Means of knowing the Nature, or of proving the Existence of the one only True God against Hobbs, Spinoza, or any other Atheist whatever. 2. That in Reference to God, or Spirits, he reduces Humane Understanding, to the most Incurable State of Scepticism. These Two Particulars are handled and prov'd Geometrically. 3. The Reasons are produced which convince the Author of this Paper, that those Sermons do rather Establish than Destroy, do rather Confirm than Confute Spinoza's Hypothesis, &c.
